Blue's Clues Discovery Series

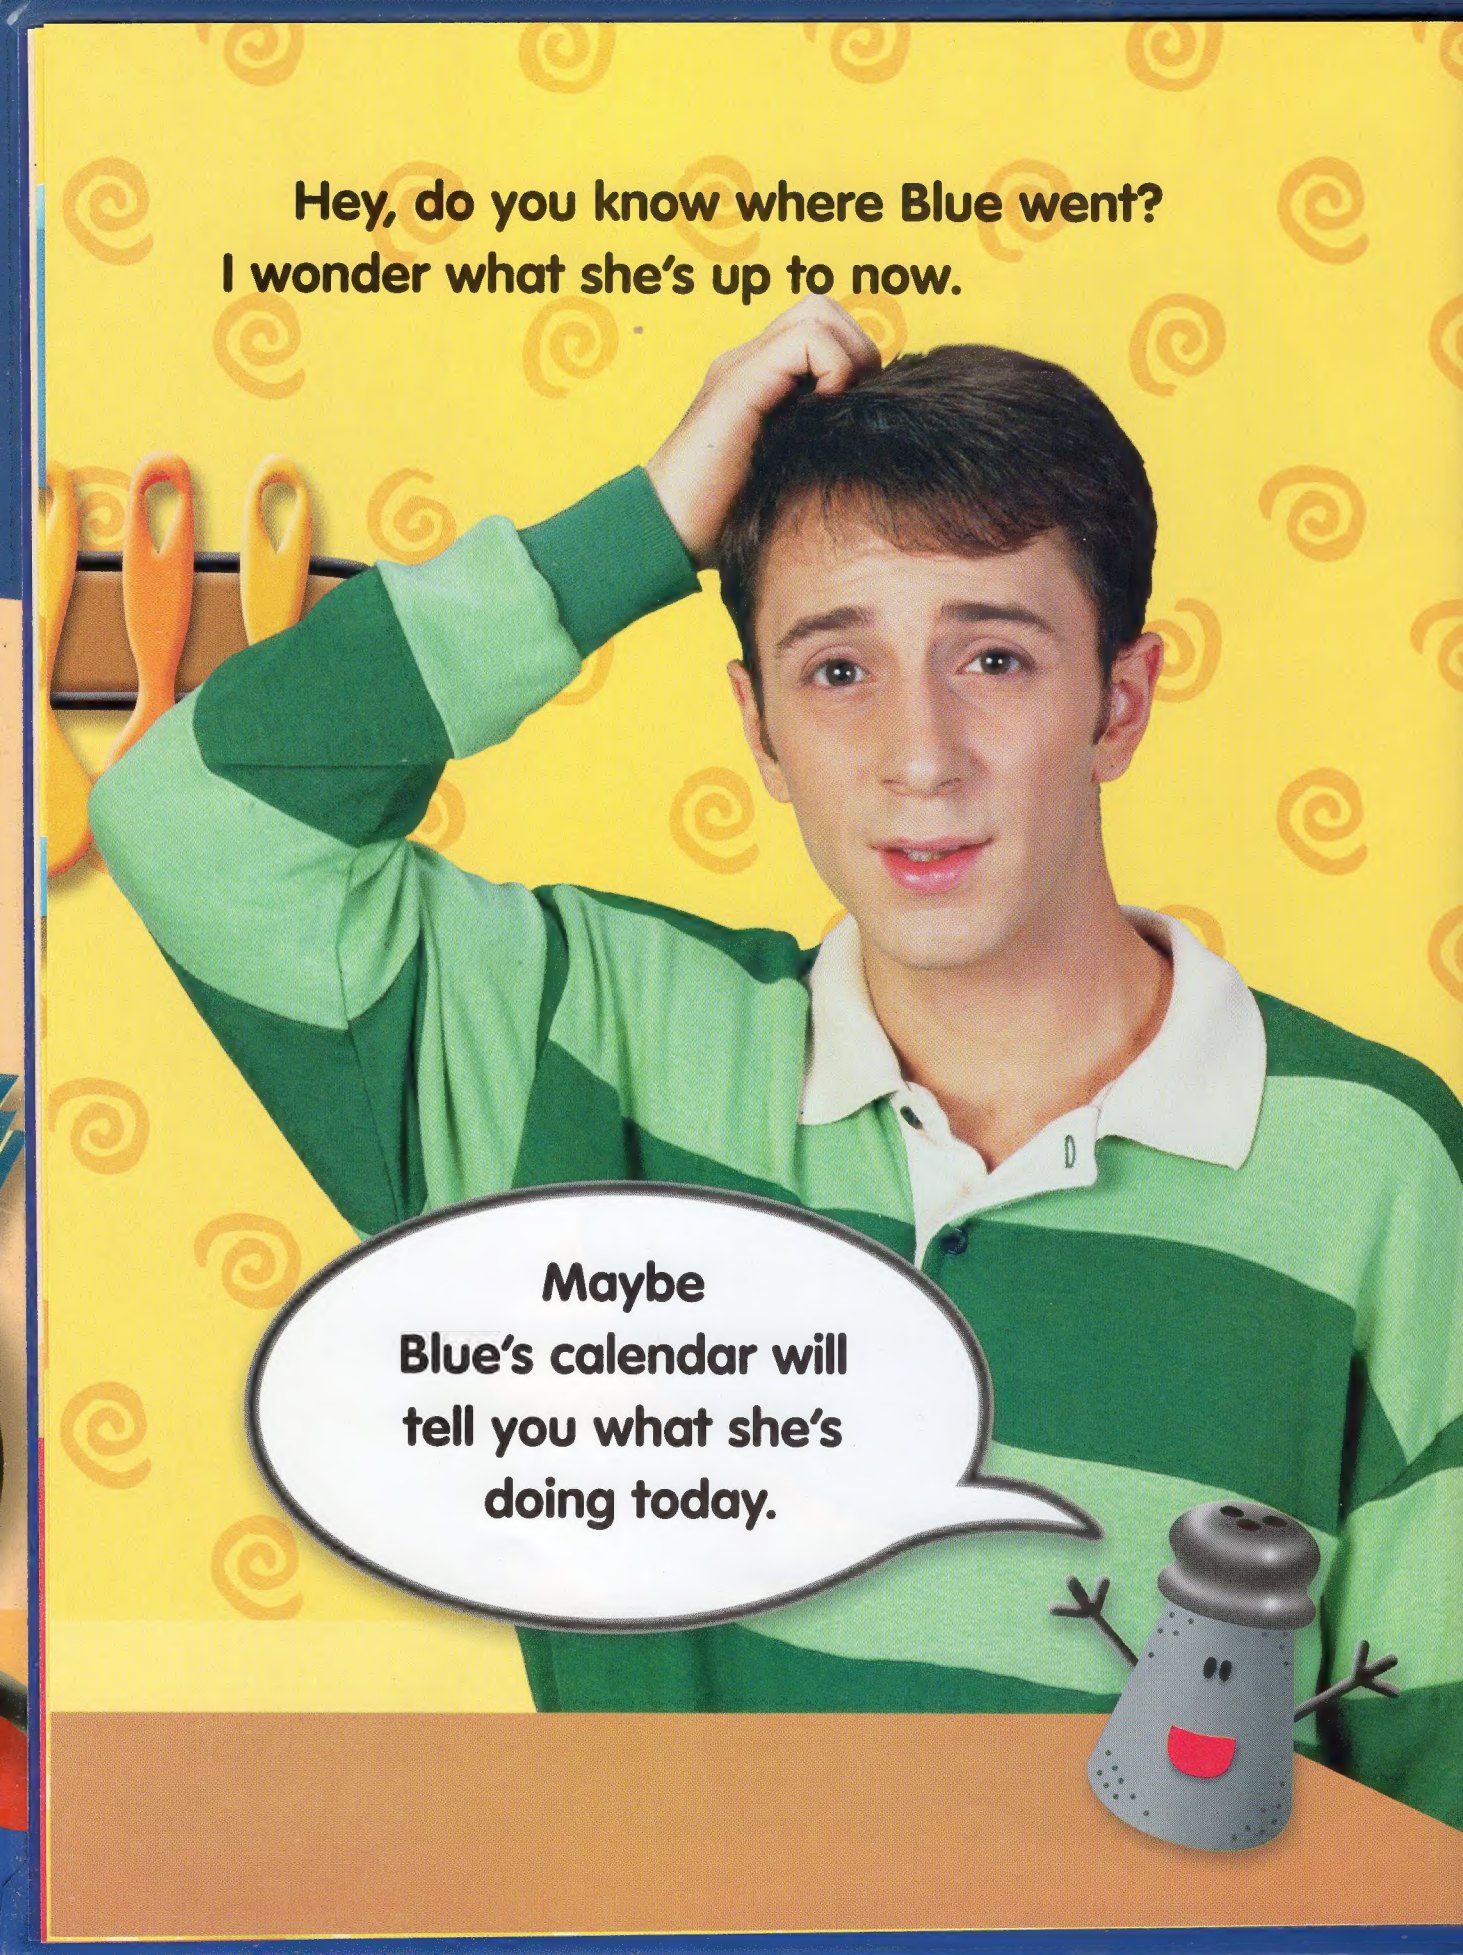
Hi! I'm glad you're here. Blue is making a special calendar. I can't wait to see what we're going to do every day! Blue's calendar shows all the days of the week. So . . . how many days is that? Seven! Oh, yeah! There are seven days in a week.

What makes this week so special, Blue? What's going to happen?

Oh! We'll play Blue's Clues to figure out what special thing is going to happen this week. Cool! Will you help me? You will? Great!



Hey, do you know where Blue went?
I wonder what she's up to now.
Maybe Blue's calendar will tell you what she's doing today.

Right! Good thinking, Mrs. Pepper!

Hmmm, let's see. Today is Monday. So what do you think Blue is doing today?

Ah . . . Blue drew a bracelet on her calendar to remind her to make friendship bracelets today.

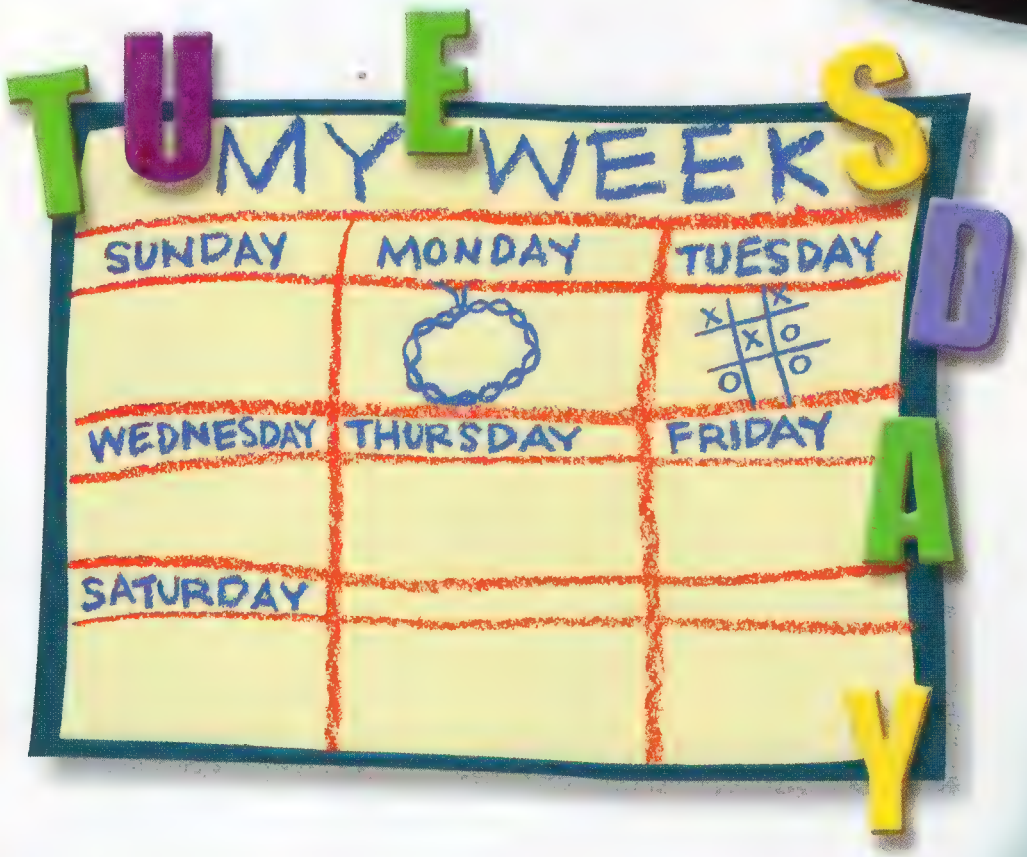
You see a clue? Where? Oh, on the Friday box. Friday is our first clue! Something special must be happening on Friday. But what? I guess we'd better find two more clues.



It's Tuesday! I wonder what Blue has planned for today!

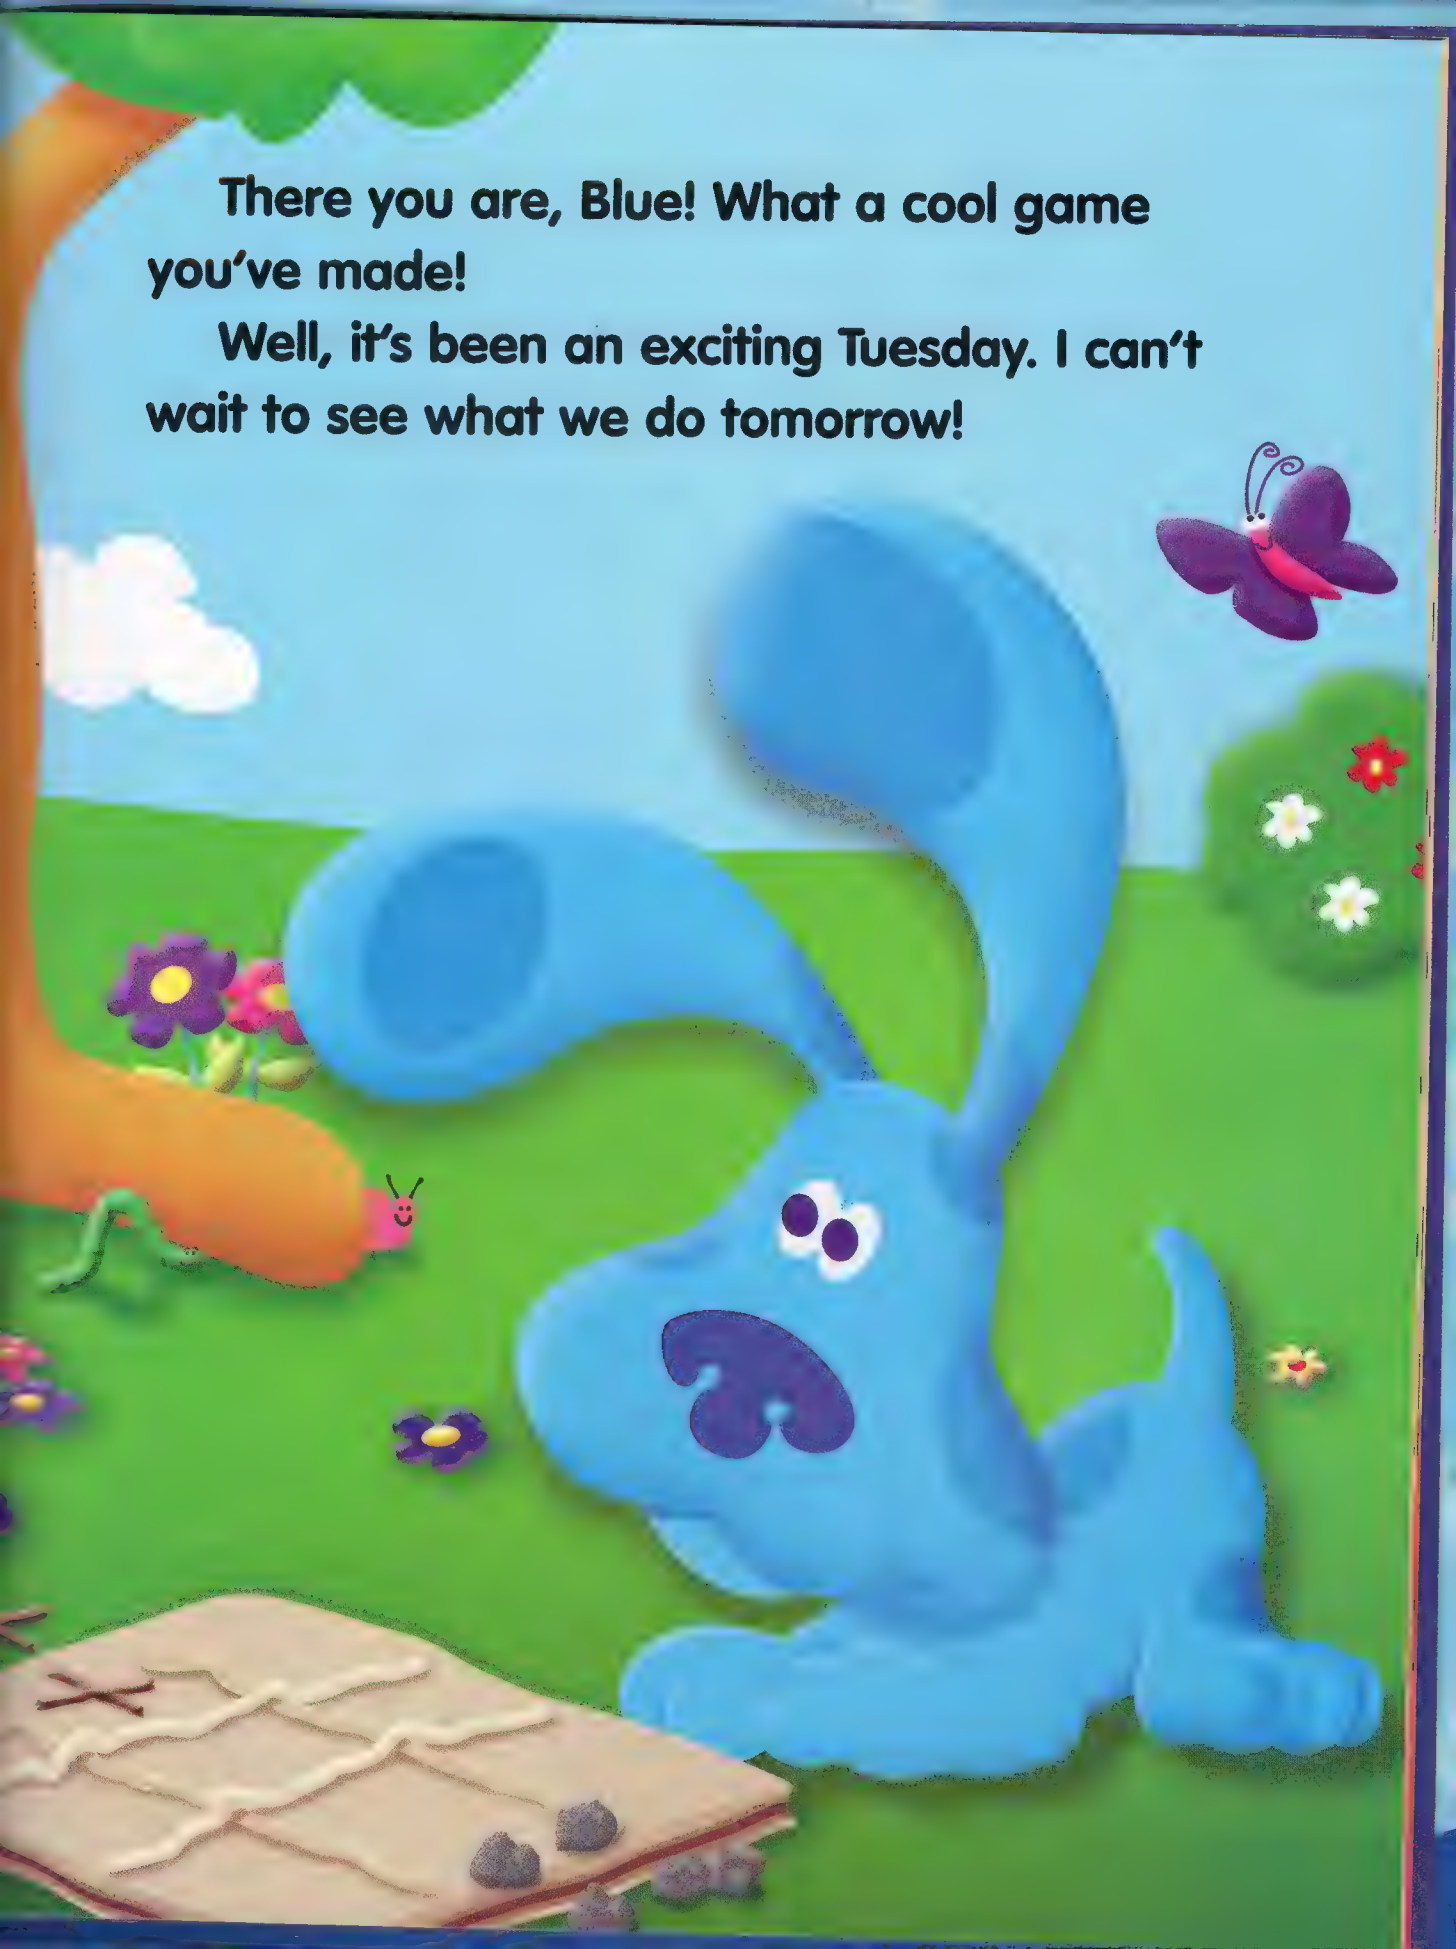
So what does Blue want to do today? Yeah! Maybe she wants to play a game. Cool!

Hmmm . . . I wonder where Blue is.

What's that? You see a clue? The house! Now we have two clues—Friday and our house. I think we need to find our last clue.

There you are, Blue! What a cool game you've made!

Well, it's been an exciting Tuesday. I can't wait to see what we do tomorrow!



What a great Wednesday this is going to be. Blue wants to make cookies!

What do you think we should do first? Mix the ingredients. Good thinking! Then what? Put the cookie dough on a cookie sheet. What's next? Yeah! Put it in the oven to bake. Then we have to wait. Mmm . . . I have a feeling these are going to be delicious!

It's Thursday already. What does Blue want to do today? Right! She wants to clean the house.

What should we use to clean the rug? The vacuum? Good thinking. And to dust the furniture? And where do you think these toys should go?

Hey, thanks for your help! How does everything look? Oh! The picture is crooked. I'll straighten that right up. What? You see a clue? The picture of Blue's friends! That's our third clue. You know what that means? It's time to go to our . . . Thinking Chair!

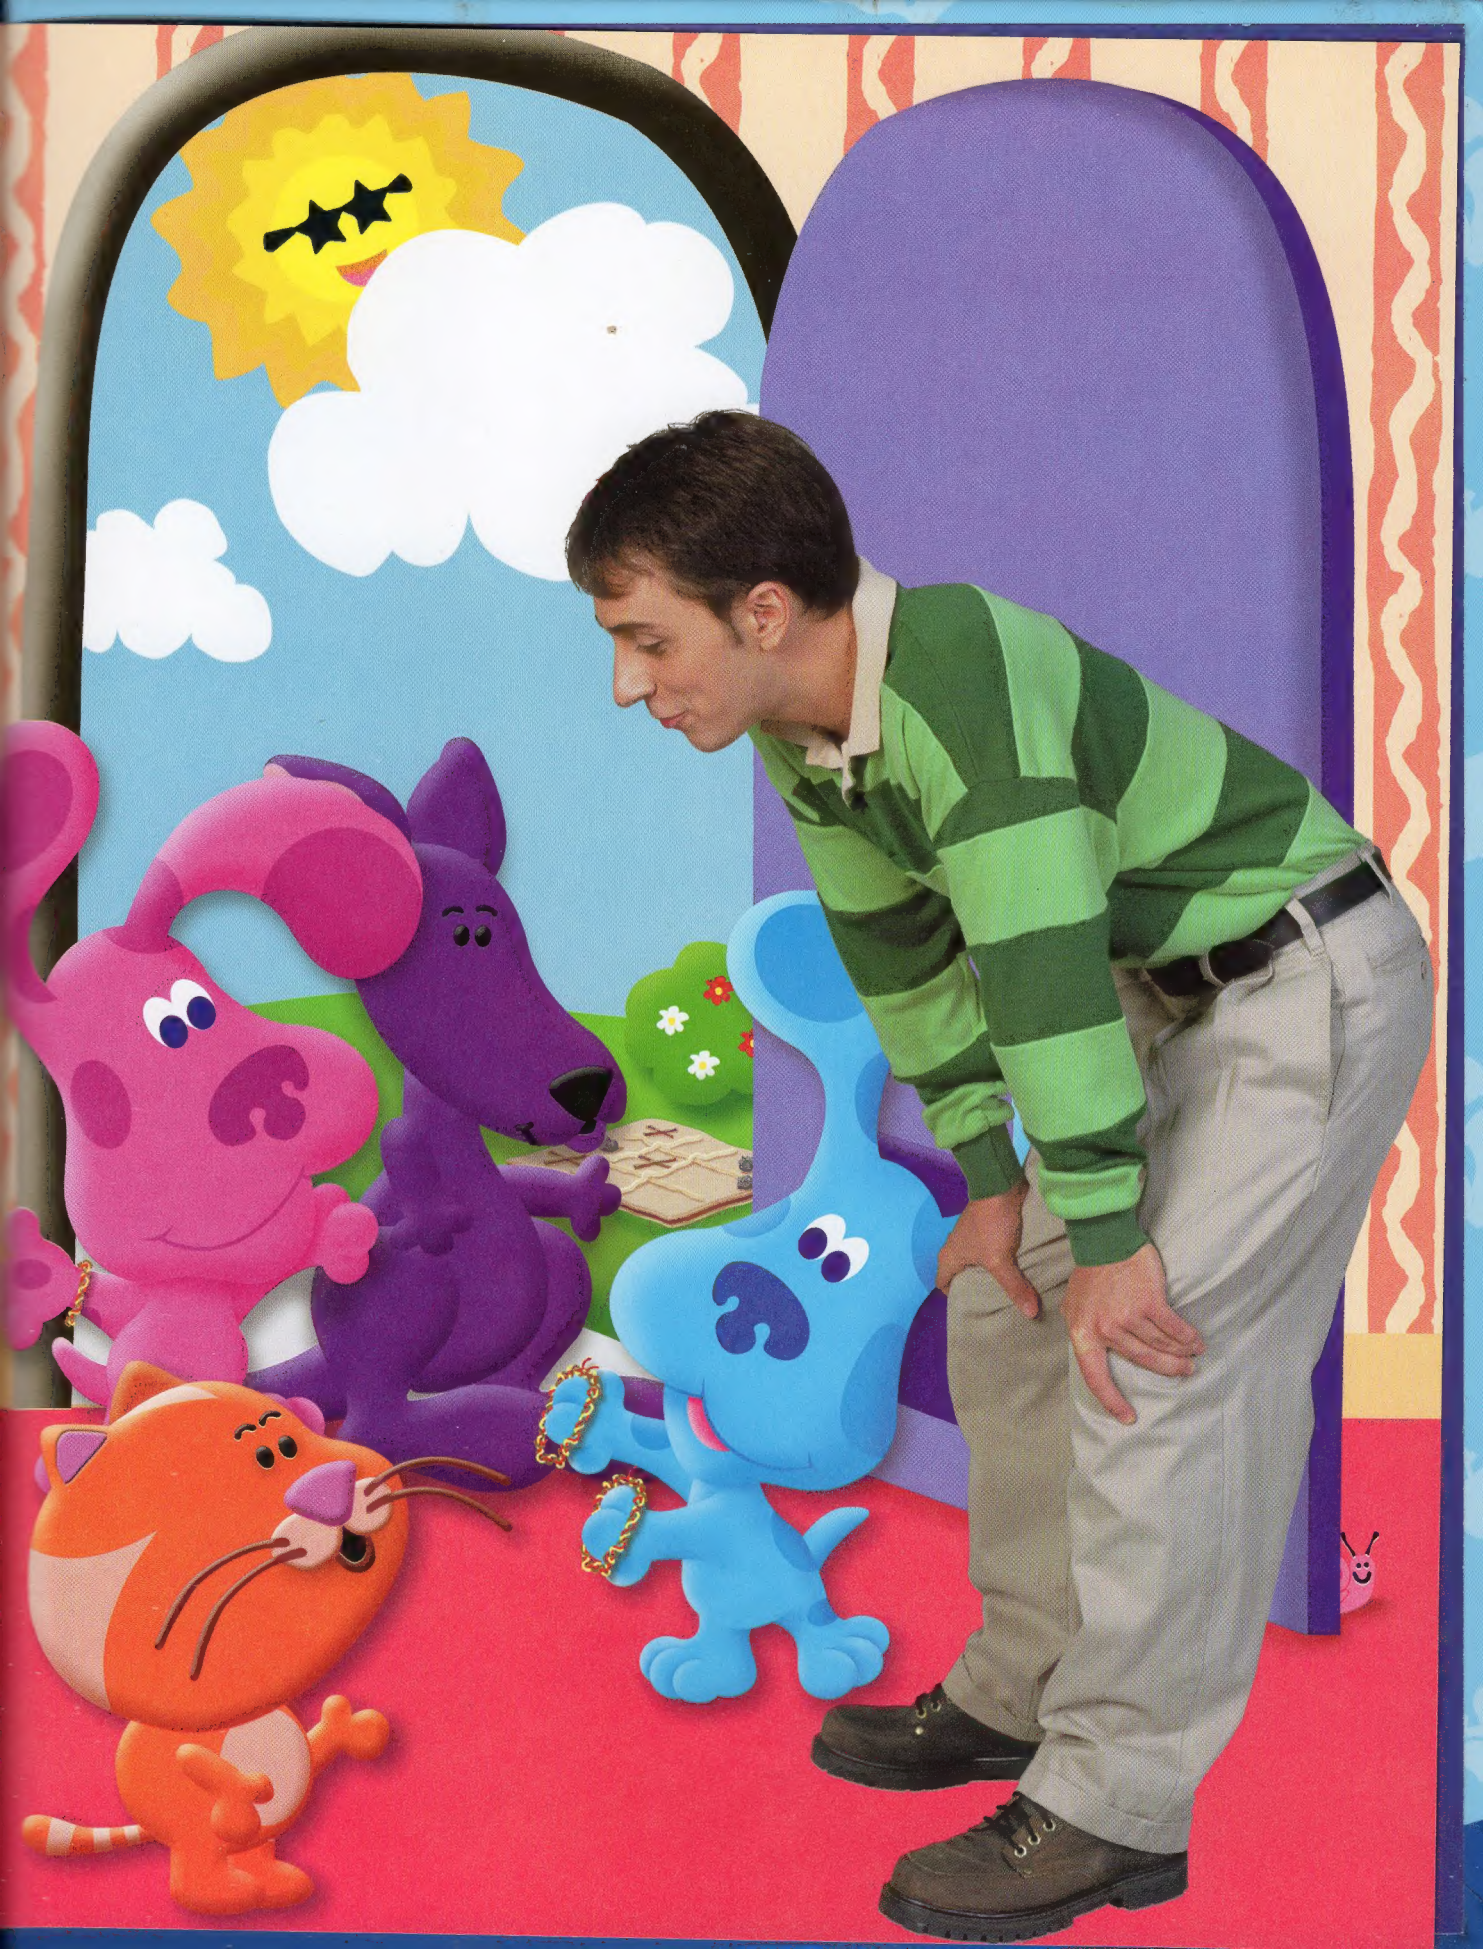
Hmmm. Our clues are Friday, our house, and Blue's friends. Any ideas?

That's it! Blue's going to have a special play date with her friends at our house on Friday. Yeah! We just figured out Blue's Clues!

FRIDAY

This sure has been a busy week! Blue's calendar was a big help in reminding us to get everything done.

And now here it is—Friday! And it's time for Blue's special play date. Thanks for helping us get ready!



BLUE'S BIG WEEK CALENDAR

You will need: markers or crayons, a ruler, and a large piece of paper or posterboard

1. Turn your paper sideways so the long sides are at the top and bottom. Make a big box for your headline by using a ruler to draw a line all the way across the page.

2. Decide what you want to call your calendar (Blue called hers "My Week") and write that in the big box at the top. Decorate like crazy!

3. Ask a grown-up to help you draw lines to divide the calendar into the days of the week.

4. Ask for help writing the days of the week (and the dates if you want)—one for each box.

5. Draw pictures in the boxes of what you plan to do on each day of your big week.
